

Blessings List

January 26th, 2025

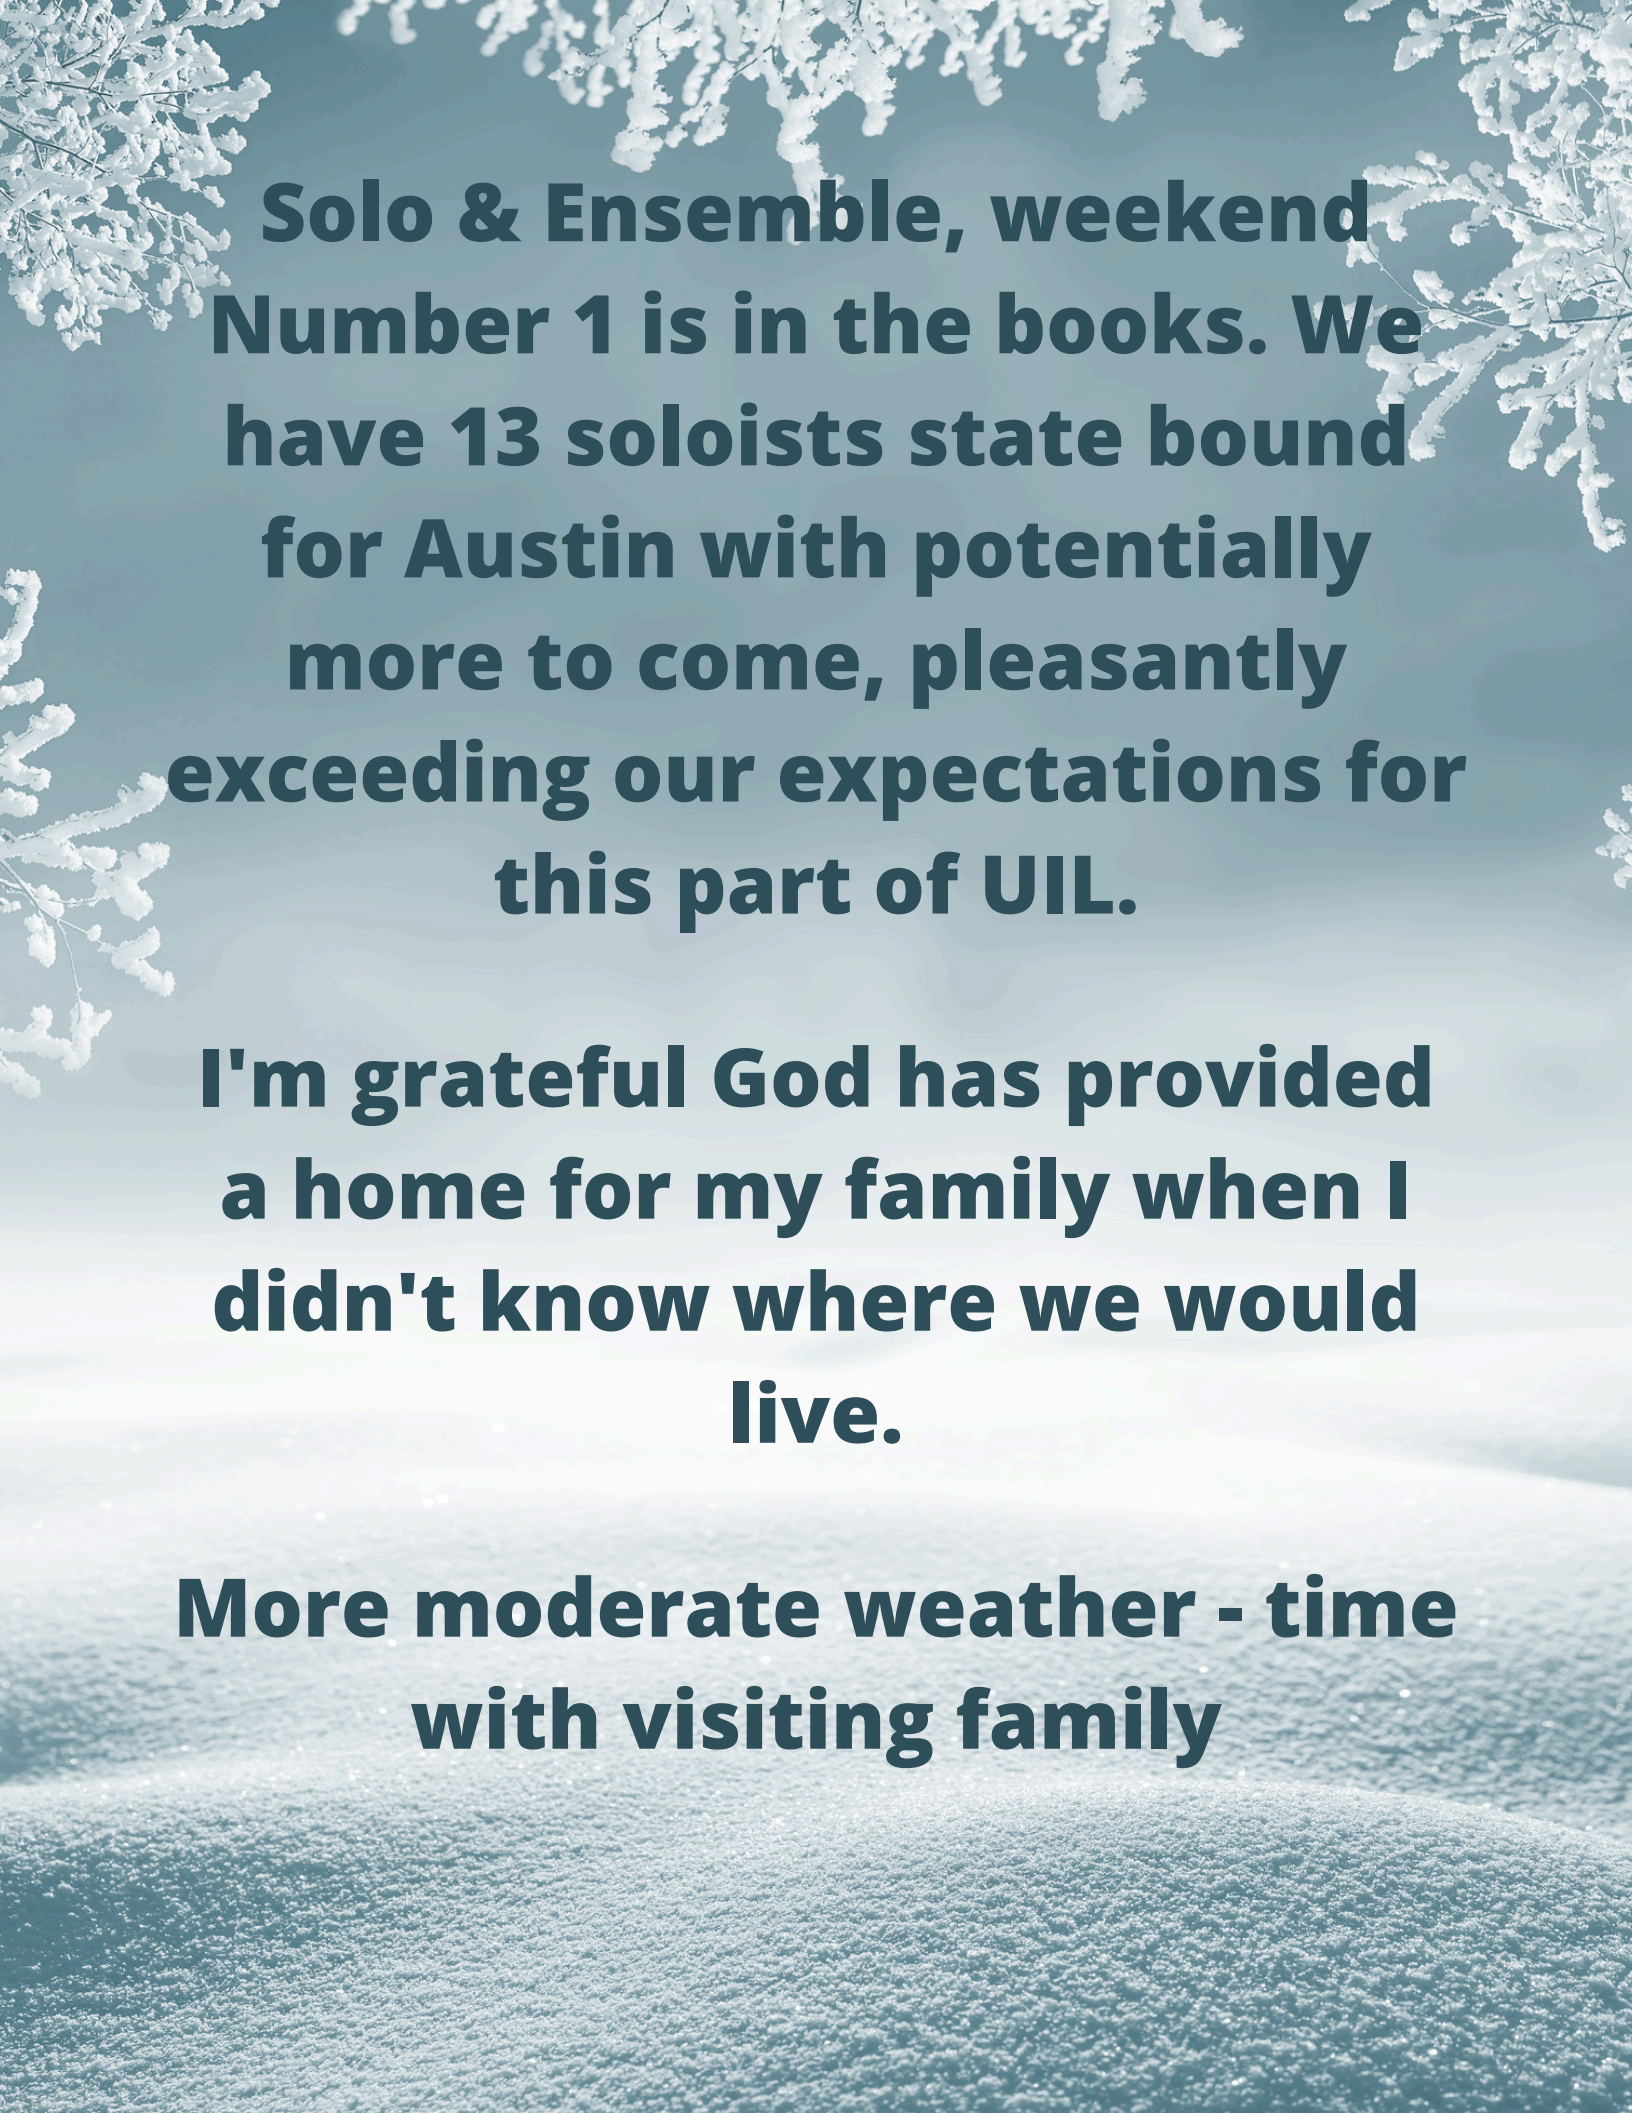

New faces in worship

Strength and peace in a time
of trial and testing.

I am grateful for all the doubt
and insecurity you give me,
that I should ponder the important questions. You slow me down and I thank you.

Being around my family who are in good health. We are blessed.

Solo & Ensemble, weekend Number 1 is in the books. We have 13 soloists state bound for Austin with potentially more to come, pleasantly exceeding our expectations for this part of UIL.

I'm grateful God has provided a home for my family when I didn't know where we would live.

More moderate weather - time
with visiting family

Thankful I am feeling better after being sick for so long

God has blessed me this week
with the rare cold weather
we've had this past week.

Kindness and love

Being warm

Our new president

Thankful the country is headed in a good direction.

A winter scene with snow-covered trees and a blue sky. The text is overlaid on the image.

My church family - Job security

My Lord never gives up on me

The cold is past

Kitty & Lee behind us

Removing things and people that are not serving His purpose in me.

Clarity that I am enough and I do have a good quality of life.

Thanks to having faith that I am always provided for. God is good.

For all the joy at school with my friends.

Lord, Thank you that Mom did very well with her surgery.
Thank you that Melinda is feeling better and recovering well as well. Thank you for your Son and your constant companionship. Father God, Please continue to heal/bless Aida and Sandy and all living with a condition or illness.
Please bless Infinities and our business' new expanded services. Help me to learn more so I/we may help people.
We ask for continued peace,
grace, love and provision.

Friends

Had a great meal with our best friends this week.

The joy of delayed start of school and having family breakfast before school.

Miros and Danny, great friends visiting.
